Technically, there is no definition for 'racist ranga', but we all know what it means and who fits in to that category.	2388	2016-11-28
It's funny how everyone is having a go at her yet if u really take in the words u will understand what she is saying.these days a lot of people are taking what is not entitled to them.this includes aboriginal entitlements.wouldnt u want these to go to true blooded aboriginals and not those just scamming the system?	1005	2016-11-28
She is right and if you don't agree you really are a bigot, all she is doing is stopping people rorting the system and so many still want to bag her...wake up to yourself	481	2016-11-28
Indigenous ways should have been integrated into mainstream Australia, like it was in South America, it's a rich culture which should never "die out" but protected and spread. It's not aboriginal "culture" to drink and do drugs, that's a world wide issue, their art, their myths and legends...all that stuff should have been valued.	463	2016-11-30
hopefully we can aim to increase life expectancy... Just a thought	381	2016-11-24
Shameful indictment of our recent past Perhaps we should also include the stolen white generations also Babies taken from their mothers because they weren't married, to young etc etc This has not been addressed	375	2016-12-02
I don't see what the problem is? Aboriginals are entitled to certain government grants, she just wants clearer way of clarifying who is in fact of aboriginal heritage? That's not racist? I don't get it?	358	2016-11-29
Now now everybody, before we form our own opinions lets just wait until Waleed tells us how to think.	332	2016-12-06
What about us australians? Born here can we be aboriginals too ☐☐☐ go pauline!!!!	311	2016-11-28
She's right - a person with minimal Aboriginal ancestry has a financial incentive to call themselves Aboriginal to access higher welfare benefits. It is open to gross exploitation.	274	2016-11-28
